Topic: The current state of the residential and commercial real estate markets.

Jennifer Causey joined John Rea Realty in 2015, taking advantage of the opportunity to work with a leading commercial and residential developer. She learned firsthand the skill set required to be successful in commercial real estate. While continuing to work in commercial development, specifically restoration in Downtown Monroe’s Historic District, Jennifer decided to step in full time as a licensed real estate agent in October 2016. Having achieved highest number of Commercial and Land New Listings, Listings Closed, and Sales Closed for 2018, 2019, 2020, 2021, 2022 and 2023 with production sales totaling well over $60 million, Jennifer has proven herself to be more than capable and connected in the commercial market.
