

A one-day seminar providing a comprehensive review of the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's Regulation C.

A one-day seminar providing a comprehensive review of the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act and the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's Regulation C. Whether you are new to HMDA or have been reporting for years, you will receive benefits from this seminar's practical, "real world" approach to HMDA compliance.

HMDA poses challenges to both novice and experienced reporters. With increased regulatory scrutiny of HMDA data for fair lending purposes and the potential penalties associated with technical errors, it is crucial for an institution's HMDA data gathering and reporting process to be precise.

The Mastering HMDA seminar provides a comprehensive discussion of the regulations and explanations of common errors and violations. Throughout the presentation, the instructor discusses relevant Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) published by the regulators and questions received from PBS' call-in service. The seminar provides the attendee the opportunity to get practical answers to their recurring questions.

HERE'S WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- Coverage, exemptions and key definitions associated with HMDA
- "What information goes where" on the Loan Application Register
- Proper lobby notices and requirements for making HMDA data available to the public
- Important FAQs and other tools available from the FFIEC
- Why and how HMDA data is used during the fair lending review process
- Common challenges associated with HMDA, including, understanding the definition of refinance or temporary financing, and the difference between the Rate Spread and HOEPA calculations
