

BANK COUNSEL CONFERENCE

The Ritz-Carlton, New Orleans • December 6-7, 2018

The 2018 LBA Bank Counsel Conference will include two days of presentations on recent state legislation and court decisions involving banking and commercial laws, as well as presentations on federal banking regulations and other current issues.

Location

The Ritz-Carlton, New Orleans
921 Canal Street
New Orleans, LA 70112

Registration Fee

$495, per LBA member
$695, per non-member

Who Should Attend

The conference agenda focuses on issues of concern to both bankers and their legal counsel. This program is designed to benefit in-house bank counsel, private practitioners in the banking and commercial law fields and bank officers. Compliance officers and other senior bank executives regularly attend this conference.

Hotel Information at The Ritz-Carlton, New Orleans

The LBA has contracted for a set number of sleeping rooms at The Ritz-Carlton, New Orleans based on the last few years' attendance. We will monitor the room pickup and add rooms if available. We encourage you to make your reservations early. To ensure the LBA group rate of $225+ tax/night, please call 1-800-826-8987 and identify that you are booking with the LBA Bank Counsel Conference Room Block. Rooms are available in the block for Wednesday 12/5, Thursday 12/6, Friday 12/7 and Saturday 12/8. Click here to book your reservation online.

Reservation Deadline: Sleeping room reservations must be made by November 12, 2018 at 5:00pm or until the block of rooms for LBA is filled, whichever is sooner. After November 12, 2018, reservations will be made based on availability and the hotel may not be able to honor the discounted rate.

Featured Speakers

John Kennedy was elected to the U.S. Senate in 2016. He has built a distinguished career as a conservative champion for the people of Louisiana and a dedicated watchdog of taxpayer money. Kennedy serves on the Appropriations, Banking, Housing & Urban Affairs, Budget, Judiciary and Small Business & Entrepreneurship committees in the U.S. Senate. Prior to his election to the Senate, Kennedy was state treasurer of Louisiana for five terms. As treasurer, he oversaw the state's multi-billion-dollar investment portfolios. He also oversaw local and state bond issues and returned millions of dollars in unclaimed property each year. Prior to his position as Treasurer, Mr. Kennedy served as Secretary of the Department of Revenue, Special Counsel to Governor Roemer and Secretary of Governor Roemer's Cabinet. He was also an attorney and partner in the Baton Rouge and New Orleans law firm of Chaffe McCall. Mr. Kennedy graduated magna cum laude in political science, philosophy and economics from Vanderbilt, was president of his senior class, and elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He received his law degree from the University of Virginia and his B.C.L. degree from Oxford University in England where he was a First Class Honors graduate. Mr. Kennedy has been an adjunct professor at LSU Law School and a volunteer substitute teacher for public schools. He resides in Madisonville, Louisiana, with his wife Becky and their son, Preston. They are founding members of the North Cross United Methodist Church.

Barry Grodsky is a partner at the Taggart Morton law firm in New Orleans practicing primarily in the areas of creditor rights, property management law, banking law, bankruptcy and commercial litigation. Barry received his business degree from the University of Texas in 1979 and his law degree from Tulane in 1982. After internships with Congressman Billy Tauzin and U.S. District Judge Morey Sear and serving as a law clerk to State Judge Steven Plotkin he went into private practice. Barry is the current President of the Louisiana State Bar Association. He is its former Secretary of the Louisiana State Bar Association and Editor of the Bar Journal. Barry serves on the Fee Arbitration Panel, Budget Committee, Bar Governance Committee and Audit Committee and previously served on the CLE Committee, Long Range Planning Committee and the committee reviewing the State Bar's legislative process. Barry has chaired for several years the LSBA's Committee on the Profession which has been involved in numerous programs to assist not only young lawyers but law students as well. He oversees the four law school professionalism programs dealing with character and fitness for bar admission and along with Judge Elizabeth Foote on behalf of the State Bar received the Smythe-Gambrill Award for Professionalism. Barry is also coordinating the LSBA's recently approved mentoring program for new admittees. He has twice won the LSBA President's Award primarily for his work on professionalism programs and has also won the LSBA's Distinguished Service to the Bar Award. Barry also teaches undergraduate courses at Tulane.

David Cromwell is a partner in the Shreveport law firm of Pettiette, Armand, Dunkelman, Woodley, Byrd & Cromwell, L.L.P. An Order of the Coif graduate of Tulane Law School, he is a member of the Council and vice-president of the Louisiana State Law Institute and presently serves as the reporter of its Security Devices Committee, which drafted the recently enacted Civil Code titles on security and on pledge and which is presently nearing completion of a comprehensive revision of the Louisiana Private Works Act. He is also the reporter of the Law Institute's Possessory Actions Committee and is the reporter and chairman of its Coordinating, Semantics, Style and Publications Committee. He previously served as reporter of the Component Parts Committee and has also served or presently serves as a member of numerous other Law Institute committees. He is a co-author of Secured Credit:

Louisiana and American Perspectives, a new law school casebook on Louisiana security devices. He is the author of recently published articles on secured interests in farm products, vendor's privileges, and real obligations. He is a member of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers and of the Bank Counsel Committee of the Louisiana Bankers Association, having served as chairman in 1994 and 2005. Mr. Cromwell is presently the chairman of the Louisiana Supreme Court Committee on Bar Admissions and, from 2004 until 2014, was the Code III bar examiner of the Louisiana bar examination. He presently serves on the MPRE Committee of the National Conference of Bar Examiners. He has appeared in Best Lawyers in America for over twenty years and is listed as a leading individual in the field of banking and finance in the Chambers USA Guide to America's Leading Lawyers for Business. He is a member of the board of directors of the Committee of One Hundred in Shreveport and is a member and former director of the Rotary Club of Shreveport. He is a frequent lecturer on security devices and other commercial topics.

John S. Hodge was appointed to serve as a United States Bankruptcy Judge for the Western District of Louisiana on August 20, 2018. Prior to his appointment, he was a shareholder in Wiener, Weiss & Madison, P.C. in Shreveport, Louisiana, where he represented debtors, debtors-in-possession, trustees, creditors, creditor committees and fiduciaries in workouts, debt restructuring, bankruptcy cases, financial and real estate transactions and non-bankruptcy litigation. From 2002-2018, he also served as a member of the Panel of Chapter 7 Trustees established by the United States Trustee for Region 5 for cases filed in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Western District of Louisiana. He received a B.S. degree (Accounting) from Louisiana State University in 1985 and a J.D. from Louisiana State University Law Center in 1988. He is the recipient of the Arthur Young Outstanding Petroleum Accounting Award (1985) and the American Jurisprudence Award for Business Associations (1987). He is a member of the Louisiana State, Federal and American (Member, Section on Business Law) Bar Associations, the American Bankruptcy Institute and the Booth-Politz Chapter of the American Inns of Court.
